Certificate IV in Leisure and Health

training—where knowledge + health meet

AMA Skills Training is a business unit of Australian Medical Association (South Australia) Inc., which is the peak representative body for the medical profession formed in 1879. AMA Skills Training is a Registered Training Organisation (RTO No. 40880) under ASQA Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015.

We were established to develop and deliver training specifically for the Primary Health Care sector and to issue parchments/certificates and statements of attainment for nationally accredited qualifications and units of competency.

All our courses are based on a blended delivery:-

- face to face
- self paced learning
- workplace learning
- webinars
- online
- RPL

Our flexible delivery focuses on practical components of study as well as real work situations with choices of delivery times.

Our delivery staff include members of the Health workforce who are practitioners with extensive and current experience in the health industry.

Course Description

This qualification reflects the role of workers participating in the design, implementation and evaluation of leisure, health activities and programs for clients in one or more sector areas. Workers may be in residential facilities and/or in community agencies and day centres, completing specialised tasks and functions in relation to leisure and health. While workers are responsible for their own outputs, work is carried out under direct or indirect supervision within defined organisation guidelines.

To achieve this qualification the candidate must have completed at least 120 hours of work as detailed in the Assessment Requirements of the units of competency.

Occupational Titles

Occupational titles for these workers may include:-

Activities Officer
Day Support and Recreation Activities Officer
Diversional Therapy Assistant

Disability Officer
Leisure Officer
Community Leisure Officer

Course Scope

This course is nationally recognised and requires 17 units for award of the qualification.
