TRAINERS/MENTORS/ASSESSORS CODE OF CONDUCT

Trainers

Your role as a Trainer is a position that carries with it much responsibility. As you know once a participant commences on a course with the company our obligation is to provide exceptional quality training in line with AQF requirements. It is your job to ensure that participants are trained to a level about the competency standards and that they are able to approach you with any questions and any other matters that may arise throughout the training course.

Mentors/Assessors

Your role as a Mentor/Assessor is a very important and busy position. As you know once a contract of training has been signed up you need to liaise with employers/supervisors and the participant until the completion of the contract. Your communication as a Mentor/Assessor should focus around the 'on-the-job' assessments required for the completion of the Training and any other matters that may arise throughout the contract of training.

As a Trainer/Mentor/Assessor for AMA Skills Training the following guidelines must be adhered to at all times.

Socialising with Participants

You can easily compromise your position of respect, trust and responsibility as a Trainer/Mentor/Assessor by engaging in social activities with participants. To protect yourself and AMA Skills Training, socialising with participants is strictly prohibited until the contract of training has been completed.

Personal Information

AMA Skills Training's Privacy Statement needs to be adhered to at all times. Participants' personal information must not be shared with anyone outside our RTO unless written permission has been obtained from the student AND approved by the Chief Executive Officer.

Professional Dress and Language

Trainers/Mentors/Assessors must wear professional dress and use appropriate language at all times when conducting a course, visiting employers and/or assessing participants on-the-job. Remember you are representing AMA Skills Training and your image and speaking manner will reflect people's perception of the organisation.

Alcohol Consumption

Under no circumstances is alcohol to be consumed by Trainers/Mentors/Assessors whilst visiting employers and participants or while conducting a course. You are requested to ensure the integrity of yourself as a Trainer/Mentor/Assessor and AMA Skills Training is not undermined by excessive consumption of alcohol at any functions you attend on behalf of the company.

I have read and understood the Code of Conduct and agree to abide by it:-
